It's Sharathon time! Don't miss FR. JEREMY MILLER on Annunciation Radio TUESDAY, MAY 8th, FROM 4-5pm. Help him reach his hourly goal by calling in your pledge during his hour. Tune to 89.7 WNOC and call in your pledges to 888-215-0624. Let's really show how our parish supports Annunciation Radio! Please listen and support Catholic radio during the Spring Sharathon, May 8-11. Together, we can keep Catholic Radio going and growing.

The annual Pax Christi Book Discussion will begin May 15th, 2018, and meet every other Tuesday until August 7th. We will meet in the Newman Room from 5:30-6:30 pm. Please enter through the kitchen door from the side parking lot.

We will be reading, "They Will Inherit the Earth: Peace and Nonviolence in a Time of Climate Change". This series of essays demonstrates how we can utilize peace and proactive nonviolence to save our world from catastrophic environmental destruction, never-ending war, systemic racism, corporate greed, and economic inequality.

The book can be purchased from Reger's with a 10% discount. For information please contact Kathy Savord at 419-367-8359 or drovas@aol.com.

Summer Mass Schedule: Our summer Mass schedule will begin the weekend of May 6th. Mass will be at 11am on Sundays (only). Please note that beginning July 7th we will be adding the 4:30 pm Saturday Mass for the rest of the summer. We will resume our full Mass schedule Aug. 25th/26th.

'Rejoice and Be Glad'

In this joyful Easter Season, as we celebrate the Resurrection of the Lord Jesus, the words "Rejoice and Be Glad" take on deeper meaning as we receive Pope Francis' new Apostolic Exhortation, "Gaudete et Exsultate; Rejoice and Be Glad: On the Call to Holiness in Today's World." Once again, in the simple/accessible style he's become known for, the Holy Father offers a practical guide for all people to embrace the call to holiness that the Lord addresses to each of us personally. The Lord "wants us to be saints and not to settle for a bland and mediocre existence," the Pope writes.

The Holy Father underlines the Second Vatican Council's teaching of the universal call to holiness, and at the same time identifies two perennial "subtle enemies" of that holiness, which can "weigh down the Church" and block her progress by seeking salvation not through Christ, but through one's own ideas or human efforts alone. This progress is marked by key expressions of holiness: perseverance, patience, meekness, joy, humor, boldness, passion, a sense of community, and constant prayer.

Reminding the faithful that "Christianity is meant above all to be put into practice," Pope Francis provides direct and concrete examples on how this can be done by highlighting what he calls the "Christian's identity card," the Beatitudes found in the Gospels (Mt 5:3-12; Lk 6:20-23). Living an authentic Christian life means being engaged in a spiritual combat requiring vigilance and discernment. Pope Francis affirms: "We need strength and courage to withstand the temptations of the devil and to proclaim the Gospel."

Once again, however, reports in the media have been a source of confusion for the faithful. Just recently, we read reports that in a private meeting, Pope Francis told an atheist with whom he was visiting that there is no hell. Then we were told that the Vatican Press Office had clarified that in fact the Pope had not granted an interview, that there was a conversation between friends, but that the Holy Father never in fact said what was reported.

Yet again, with this document, media reports have already zoomed in on one or two paragraphs, taking words out of context and claiming the Pope said something he didn't say. For example, representing that the Pope puts caring for migrants and opposing abortion on equal footing. When what the Pope actually wrote was this, placing the defense of the unborn first in the list of respect for each and every human life:

"Our defense of the innocent unborn, for example, needs to be clear, firm and passionate, for at stake is the dignity of a human life, which is always sacred and demands love for each person, regardless of his or her development. Equally sacred, however, are the lives of the poor, those already born, the destitute, the abandoned and the underprivileged, the vulnerable infirm and elderly exposed to covert euthanasia, the victims of human trafficking, new forms of slavery, and every form of rejection."

The context of what the Pope actually wrote is in response to an ideological error which strikes at the heart of the Gospel: when folks believe that the only thing that counts is their one particular issue. The Holy Father actually affirmed the sacredness of each and every human life, highlighting first and foremost, even by its placement in the paragraph, the unborn.

My dear Dad used to say "Believe none of what you hear and half of what you read." I mention this firstly as a caution to the faithful: we cannot allow media reports to be our sole sources if we are to be informed Catholics. I can't tell you how often people admit to me they have formed an opinion though they have never read the original text of a document being discussed. And I mention this secondly as an encouragement to read the actual document, to engage what the Holy Father actually wrote, and to consider what is actually written in its proper context. Sadly, as we have discovered, no institution or outlet or person is immune from "Fake News." In fact, the Pope himself addressed the issue of "fake news" in his January 24, 2018 Message for World Communications Day!

"Rejoice and Be Glad!" We rejoice that the mission and vision of the Diocese of Toledo to foster holy disciples, holy families, and holy vocations is renewed and confirmed in this new Apostolic Exhortation. I invite all Catholics and all people of good will to embrace Pope Francis' call with the intent of striving more fervently to grow in holiness in our ordinary daily lives.

New 4:30 Mass Information

The results of the 4:30pm Mass survey were quite clear. Below are some of the results. Thus, starting on July 7th, 4:30pm Mass will go all year round, including summers and over other student breaks. It will often (not always) be a simplified Mass with less music and possibly ministers performing multiple functions. I will revisit the question of adjusting the Mass time for Rocket football games this fall. Thank you for your feedback and I look forward to offering this new Mass opportunity.

Would you like the 4:30 Saturday Mass to go all year round?

Yes - 64
No - 3

How committed are you to attending 4:30 Mass in the summer months?

I'll be in and out - 11
I'll be here frequently or most of the time - 65

To allow Luke well deserved time off, would you be open to summer Masses with only an opening and closing hymn led by the priest, but everything else recited?

Yes - 70
No - 3

If we add this Mass year round, would you be open to adjusting the Mass time in the fall when there is a late afternoon Rocket football game? Or do you think this would be too confusing?

Yes - 37
No - 5
I'd live with it, but it might be confusing - 33

If you have any questions, always feel free to contact me by calling the parish office or emailing me at jmiller@cccup.org.

Ohio Ballot Issue May 2018

There is one statewide issue on the May 8, 2018 ballot. Issue 1 is a constitutional amendment creating a bipartisan, public process for drawing Ohio congressional Districts. A somewhat similar amendment addressing redistricting for Ohio legislative districts passed in 2015.

As in 2015, the Catholic Conference of Ohio has taken a supportive position on this issue. We offer these reflections as an aid to one's discernment process.

Prudential Discernment

This issue requires prudential discernment. "Prudence shapes and informs our ability to deliberate over available alternatives, to determine what is most fitting to a specific context, and to act decisively...."

"...Catholics may choose different ways to respond to compelling social problems, but we cannot differ on our moral obligation to help build a more just and peaceful world through morally acceptable means, so that the weak and vulnerable are protected and human rights and dignity are defended."

Forming Consciences for Faithful Citizenship #20, USCCB, 2015

Reflection Questions

1. Will passage of an issue promote the value and dignity of the human person and advance the common good of persons in the state, especially the poor and vulnerable?
2. Is the issue needed?
3. Is the issue well-conceived and clearly stated?
4. Is this an issue that belongs in Ohio's Constitution?
5. Does the Issue appear to have a good chance of being implemented and enforced?
6. Are the proponents and opponents of the issue being fair, clear, and transparent in their advocacy around the issue?

State Issue 1

Creates a bipartisan, public process for drawing Congressional districts

The proposed Constitutional Amendment would:

- End the partisan process for drawing congressional districts and replace it with a process with the goals of promoting bipartisanship, keeping local communities together, and having district boundaries that are more compact.
- Ensure a transparent process by requiring public hearings and allowing public submission of proposed plans.
- Require the General Assembly or the Ohio Redistricting Commission to adopt new congressional districts by a bipartisan vote for the plan to be effective for the full 10-year period.
- Require that if a plan is adopted by the General Assembly without significant bipartisan support, it cannot be effective for the entire 10-year period and must comply with explicit anti-gerrymandering requirements.

Catholic Conference of Ohio Position

We appreciate that this issue was well debated in the Ohio General Assembly, and that it was placed on the ballot with strong bipartisan support.

Legislative districts should be fairly established, facilitate active citizen participation, assure effective accountability and accessibility to both voters and elected officials, and ensure the common good of all in society. Issue 1 provides a prudentially viable process for achieving these goals.

The Catholic Bishops of Ohio support passage of Issue 1.

The Catholic Conference of Ohio is the official representative of the Catholic Church in public matters affecting the Church and the general welfare of the citizens of Ohio.

PANCAKE POWER BREAKFAST

In need of a break from exams? Hungry for late night breakfast?
Join CSA for Pancake Power Breakfast on Monday, April 30th from 10 p.m. to 12 a.m. here at CCUP. Bring your friends as this event is open to all UT students!

Dear Parishioners,

As another academic year for the University of Toledo and the Catholic Student Association (CSA) quickly comes to a close, I want to extend a thank you that is filled with the utmost gratitude. We truly appreciate your support of CSA and our ministry and your dedication to Corpus Christi University Parish, especially by serving as role models in living the Catholic faith.

With your support, the Catholic Student Association has been able to grow tremendously and has accomplished much during this school year. CSA has grown in numbers, in faith, and in community. In addition, many CSA members have been recognized throughout the school year for their scholarship, service, and leadership in a wide variety of on- and off-campus organizations.

Most notably from this past year, the Newman Board of the Catholic Student Association decided to dedicate our year to one specific line in CSA's Constitution. We have been striving to embody CSA's Mission Statement in our daily lives "by serving the UT community as a sign of the presence of Jesus Christ within our campus community." While keeping mission at the forefront of our thoughts, we served others by making pizzas for local homeless shelters and food pantries, we enriched our faith and grew in spirituality through Bible study and retreats, we deepened our knowledge of both Church history and contemporary issues facing the Catholic Church, we enjoyed each other's company celebrating the holidays and exploring Toledo together, and we proudly represented CSA to the UT community while performing at Songfest, dancing at Rocke'THON, serving at BIG Event, and relaying at Relay for Life. I cannot reflect on the successes of this past year without acknowledging our dedicated and talented Newman Board, our inspiring FOCUS missionaries, and our trusted and loving advisors for their part in enhancing the mission and development of CSA.

It has been an honor and privilege to serve as the President of the Catholic Student Association, especially in affiliation with our Corpus Christi University Parish. On behalf of the Newman Board and all students in the Catholic Student Association, we thank you! The guidance and care the permanent community has shown students is immeasurable and we deeply appreciate your support.

We will continue to give gratitude in our prayers for your welcoming, your service, and your generosity (including Sunday night dinners) and ask that you pray for us as we continue on our journey to become signs of the presence of Jesus Christ in our communities and in our world. Sincerely,

Maureen O. Hickey
