Thanks to all who supported Bethany House!!

Corpus Christi again had a wonderful showing at the Bethany House fundraiser at the Dock's on April 8th with over 50 parishioners attending. Even more supported the event financially even if they could not attend.

Bethany House, which provides shelter for victims of domestic violence, made $40,298.00 from the event, which is an increase from $6000 last year!

Many thanks to all who supported this wonderful cause in any way. Know that you have made a significant contribution to the lives on many women and children. God's blessings on each of you!

Sr. Joy and Fr. Jeremy

I would like to thank the CCUP staff and parishioners for their wonderful support of the Walk for Water Toledo 5K walk/run. Enough funds will be collected from the Walk to support 7 water purification units. This will provide access to clean water for 1400 people including over 700 children. I also appreciate the parishioners donation of jugs without which the walk could not have been held. A big thanks to Julie Gunderson who organized the CCUP Permanent Community Team which won the award for most funds raised by a community team. CSA also won the award for most funds raised by a student team. Special recognition must be given to Fr. Jeremy who braved the wind and cold running the course carrying a half gallon of water. Way to go, Fr. Jeremy!!

Annie Tomei, Race Director
