Preparation of the Gifts: Lord, I Need You Matt Maher

1. Lord, I come, I confess
Bowing here I find my rest
Without You I fall apart
You're the One that guides my heart
- R. Lord, I need You, oh, I need You
Every hour I need You
My one defense, my righteousness
Oh God, how I need You
2. Where sin runs deep Your grace is more
Where grace is found is where You are
Where You are, Lord, I am free
Holiness is Christ in me
- Br. So teach my song to rise to You
When temptation comes my way
When I cannot stand I'll fall on You
Jesus, You're my hope and stay

CHANGES FOR OUR LITURGICAL MINISTERS

Friends, I had a series of liturgical trainings in the past month for our veteran liturgical ministers. Last week, I shared with you the change regarding the Eucharistic Ministers. This week, I want to share with you a few changes for the ushers that may impact you.

1) No longer taking the bulletins at the end of Mass - I have instructed the ushers to not take back the bulletins at the end of Mass. I know that there is a long history of turning bulletins in here, but I would like to encourage people to take their bulletins home.

2) Seating people throughout Mass - This mainly impacts the 11 a.m. Mass. I've instructed the ushers to seat people throughout the early part of Mass, including during the Liturgy of the Word. In the past, we have instructed the ushers to only seat people when the congregation is standing so as to not be distracting to others. I've changed this because I think finding people a seat is an essential part of hospitality and making guests feel welcome. Please be accommodating if an usher asks you to allow people to pass to find their seats.

If you have any questions, feel free to contact me. Thanks for your patience and flexibility.

CHILDREN'S MINISTRY BEGINS THIS WEEKEND

As I've written about over the last six months, we are inaugurating a children's ministry program this fall here at CCUP. It has three components:

1) Children's Liturgy of the Word - children age 3-7 at the 11 a.m. Mass will be invited to the Newman Rooms to be led in an age appropriate service by two college students and one adult supervisor.

2) First Reconciliation and First Communion Preparation - on the first Sunday of the month from 10-11 a.m., three college students will instruct our First Communion aged children in preparation for their reception of these two sacraments. There are 7 students registered for this class.

3) Confirmation Preparation - on the first Sunday of the month from 10-11 a.m., three college students will instruct our Confirmation age students in preparation for their reception of Confirmation. There are 5 students registered for this class.

There are sure to be some growing pains as we embark on this new program. But it is already bringing life and energy to the parish, and the response has been great;

- Families able to return to CCUP who didn't think they could ever be parishioners again because of our lack of a sacramental preparation program for their children.
- Providing the sacrament for parishioners whose children attend schools like Lial or the Catholic academies since they have to receive the sacrament with a parish, not with their school
- Families who love the thought of having their children formed by college students passionate about their faith

Thank you for your support and prayers for the young people who will be making up the church of the future!

Fr. Jeremy
