Christmas Thank You's

I want to thank everyone - staff and parishioners - who made our celebration of Christmas here at CCUP such a joyous one. So much hard work goes into preparing a fitting celebration of our Lord's birth, and so I greatly appreciate the offering of time and talent that so many make during this holy season.

I also want to thank all of you who gave me a personal Christmas gift. My hope is to send all of you a Thank You note, but if I miss someone, I want to be sure you know that I appreciate you thinking of me during this season.

Blessings to you and your families during this Christmas season!

Fr. Jeremy

DRIVERS WANTED

We are in need of drivers to transport a visually impaired parishioner to and from her South End home for Sunday 11am Masses. The current team has been in place for several years and now needs to be increased.

Those who have helped us in the past have found this to be a simple but extremely meaningful ministry. Your involvement could be as little as several times a year or as much as monthly or anywhere in between.

For additional information please contact Pat Hanusz at 419-536-8035 or patsyhanusz@gmail.com.
